

CHARLES ANDY VONDRAN JR., DDS

For anyone making their way in the field of dentistry, it helps to have a knack for making people smile on the front end. Thankfully, Dr. Charles Andy Vondran Jr. is known at each of his three offices for his upbeat personality and positive attitude, not to mention his technical chops. Vondran is active in a number of professional associations and is the No. 1 Invisalign provider in the state. Beloved by patients and staff alike, Vondran's favorite part of the job is improving people's self-confidence and getting to know his patients. Away from the office, the born-and-raised Arkansan can be found hunting alongside family and friends.
